ATLANTA from the ASHES

From its earliest beginnings as a tiny community consisting of a few small cabins and farms, Atlanta has undergone tremendous growth in size, population, and influence. However, its development has not gone unchallenged.

In 1864 the city was threatened with extinction. The Atlanta Campaign, led by General William T. Sherman, culminated in the torching of the city. Only a few homes were spared, and the city was totally evacuated. Yet, in 1865 the residents returned and reconstruction began. By 1890 all signs of the devastation were gone, and Atlanta's resurgence was complete.

The statue, The Phoenix, represents the city's unwillingness to accept defeat then and its wish to excel now. The phoenix, a mythical bird which symbolizes resurrection, gazes upward, embodying the desire to achieve.

SANDY HARRISON

Energetic, conscientious, and caring are only a few of the adjectives which fittingly describe Sandy Harrison. Her vitality, readily sensed by all who meet her, manifests itself in both her personality and her teaching. And it serves equally to enhance both her dedication and compassion.

The '83 Phoenix is proudly dedicated to you, Sandy Harrison, as a symbol of our gratitude, admiration and, above all, love.

FALL CONFERENCE

Fall Conference is a time for fun and relaxation. This retreat from school gives students and faculty the opportunity to get to know each other in surroundings that are less formal than the classroom. The theme of the conference was "Challenge of the 80s." Topics for discussion included nuclear disarmament, wife abuse, and the importance of education. Activities ranged from making homemade bread to singing songs around the campfire. A good time was had by all.

FALL PARTY

In November, Mercer threw its annual Fall Party, complete with rib roast and buck dancing. When all the ribs had been consumed, the crowd of about 425 moved to the gym to listen and dance to the music of the Dixie Express. There was a "best-dressed" contest for the most authentic Western outfit. Lynn Kimbro and Skip Zitzelsberger won first place awards. Everyone had a truly rib-roaring time.

HALLOWEEN MAKE-UP CLINIC

Under the supervision of Camille Cancilla, the fourth annual Halloween Make-Up Clinic, sponsored by the MUA Drama Department, was a "frightful" success. Faces were made up as clowns, witches, vampires, hoboes, cats, and "Spiderman." Some of the more accomplished artists tried their hands at more difficult characters, delighting the more serious-minded trick-or-treaters.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

On Saturday, October 30, Mercer held its annual Halloween party and dance. Midway through the dance was the traditional costume contest. The costumes ranged from togas to M&Ms. When the decisions were finally reached, Georgia Jennings was awarded first place as a very convincing witch. Christy Butler took second place honors as a charming Southern belle, and Melanie Murphy and Mark Randolph placed third as Darla and Alfalfa. The dancing and festivities continued until after midnight.

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges recognizes those students whose academic standing, participation in extracurricular activities, and community service are truly exemplary. Mercer students elected to this year's Who's Who are: Nancy Agnew, Human Services major; Patty Giannakopoulos, Math major; Shirley Graham, Early Childhood Education major; Jan Hays, Psychology major; Jeannine Kingry, Human Services major; June Lawler, Religion and Psychology majors; Jennifer Lewis, Physical Education major; Christa Mayville, Biology major; Elena Mola, Philosophy major; Gene Owens, Religion major; Lisa Peters, Management major; Janet Rice, Management and Marketing majors; Sharon Robertson, Accounting major; Jim Wise, English and Psychology majors; and Paul Wise, English major.

INSIGHT

Ralph Nader

The role of the Insight Committee is to bring to the Mercer campus well-known speakers from all walks of life for the purpose of providing students with the opportunity to expand their understanding on a broad range of issues. Because learning extends beyond the textbook, the Insight series is an integral part of the overall educational experience of Mercer students. Insight guests and topics for 1982-83 were: Ralph Nader (Consumer Advocate and Full Time Citizen), "Consumerism: Issues for the Eighties"; Michael Harrington (National Chair, Democratic Socialists of America), "Socialism Today"; Blanche Gelfant (Author and Professor, Dartmouth College), "American Women as Writers and Heroines"; Eliot Wiginton (Teacher and Founding Editor, Foxfire), "Reflections on Foxfire"; Arkady Shevchenko (Former Soviet Ambassador and Under Secretary General, UN), "East vs. West: A View from the Kremlin"; Jeremy Rifkin (Author, Social Scientist, Lecturer), "Entropy: A New World View"; Alice Parker (Composer/Arranger and Expert in American Hymnody), "Creative Hymn Singing"; Judith Komaki (Psychologist and Professor, Purdue University), "Work Motivation: How and Why."

TURKEY TROT

On Saturday morning, November 20, students, faculty, and staff gathered in the Sheffield parking lot for the third annual Mercer/Atlanta Turkey Trot. The race covers a 3.1 mile course through the campus. Winners are determined not by their speed, but by their actual time as compared to their predicted time for completing the course. Those who finished nearest their predicted time were awarded turkeys. The Trot has gained in popularity by leaps and bounds, from thirty-five participants the first year to over 150 in this year's race. Twelve turkeys were given as prizes in the six age groups, but, as you can see from the pictures, the winners really turned out to be just a bunch of hams.

Alumni Association

The Purpose of the Alumni Association is to encourage and cultivate free exchange, social activities, and fellowship among the members of the Association; to cultivate loyalty to Mercer University and to promote the interests of Mercer University generally; to inform Alumni about Mercer University and its various activities; and to reflect the sentiments of the members of the Association on matters affecting Mercer University.

The College of Arts and Sciences Alumni Group congratulates the 1983 class and wishes for each member continuing success and happiness.

Lee Thompson—President, Jimmy Gardner—President-elect, Jay Sekulow—Vice President, Sandra Mayfield—Secretary.

Dr. Jean Hendricks
Dean of the College

Dr. Jean Howell
Assistant Dean

---

In March of 1983, the College of Arts and Sciences observed with genuine appreciation the tenth anniversary of the appointment of Dr. Jean Hendricks as Dean of the College. The College has become what it is—a very special place—largely because of the determined commitment of “Dean Jean” truly to educate in ways that will make a difference in the lives that students lead. To you, Dr. Jean, we offer a sincere and hearty “thank you.” We shall remember you for what you have been to us all.

In the Summer of 1983, Dr. Jean Howell, Assistant Dean, will complete twelve years of devoted and faithful service to the College. We have seen Dr. Howell in the classroom as teacher. We have seen him as administrator, counseling and advising students when they needed direction. We have seen him all around the campus spreading joy and telling his—jokes? We have grown to love him and we are grateful for his constant help. Thank you, Dr. Howell, for sharing with us your leadership and your delightful presence.

What is your greatest achievement?

My marriage and three sons.—Caroline Clotfelter.

Learning to employ discipline and recognize and accept my limitations.—Cam Coltharp.

Sharing with Mary in raising our delightful son, Dean.—Duane Davis.

Acquiring the knowledge to aid in my students' successes.—Barbara Dean.

A happy family which includes my wonderful wife, three precious children and two adorable granddaughters.—Hayward Fountain.

Serving as first Pastor to two new churches.—Bill Geren.

Discovering that life does indeed begin at forty (which we have all heard but never believed).—Dick Gibson.

My family.—Jay Harriman.

My not-so-consistent acceptance of deliverance from the tyranny of the need to achieve.—Colin Harris.

To have had my three children grow to adulthood as responsible individuals who are fun to know.—Baird Lloyd.

Teaching at Mercer.—Jan Lok.

Stephanie and Todd, my children.—Jean McGarrity.

The question implies a final evaluation. Sitting in my son's room and getting lost in his play, learning something today from my students, working over a problem with my husband which we may not solve: are these "achievements"?—Elaine Orr.

Maintaining a relative degree of sanity in a chaotic and irrational world.—Bill Woolf.

What is your goal in life?

To live my life as passionately and as rationally as I know how; to contribute back to my friends, profession and world at least as much as they have given to me.—Cam Coltharp.

To contribute what I can toward helping Dean and my students become responsible and caring persons.—Duane Davis.

To develop my God-given potential as teacher, artist, human being.—Barbara Dean.

To learn, share, and live the teachings of Holy Scripture.—Bill Geren.

I hope for the blessings of good health, a clear conscience, hard work, an easy smile, an embracing family, an abundant garden, peaceful nights, a warm fireside, old books, old roses, an old dog, and a few old friends.—Dick Gibson.

To find meaning to this incredibly short span of time I occupy between thousands of years of history and an infinite future.—Jay Harriman.

To be a supportive husband, nurturing father, helping teacher, and sensitive friend.—Colin Harris.

To live long enough to retire to a Tudor cottage in the West Country of England; to write books there; to entertain Mercer-Atlanta students who wander in.—Nancy Leslie.

To be wise; and to open the door of greater understanding of the world to at least one person who follows.—Baird Lloyd.

To live fully, creatively and kindly as nearly fulfilling the spirit of the Christian faith as I am able.—May Newby.

To write a good poem, to give a gift and not sign it.—Elaine Orr.

To teach one on one with grace, inspiration, and a touch of humor—and to teach others to teach one on one.—Mary Willingham.

For what do you want to be remembered?

For passing on the Classical musical traditions; opening minds and tastes that were closed to the Classics.—Barbara Dean.

As an individual who sincerely cared for his fellow man.—Hayward Fountain.

For my witness to something bigger than myself.—Bill Geren.

For a sincere love for the power, beauty, and importance of language.—Dick Gibson.

For trying to help clean the windows and for trying to help people look through them.—Colin Harris.

For never ceasing to grow.—Jean Howell.

For a sense of humor, a consuming love of poetry and drama, and a love for all sorts and conditions of men.—Nancy Leslie.

For being a true friend.—Jean McGarrity.

For getting my students to think.—Sam Peppas.

For having been a good husband and father.—Chandler Russell.

As a teacher, scholar, friend, and athlete who died trying.—Val Ruszovan.

For introducing and implementing music programs in three southeastern colleges.—Homer Savage.

For succeeding in reaching my goal (of helping other people reach their goals) again, again, and again.—Marty Williams.

For having lived and loved deeply, honestly, and without guile.—Mary Willingham.

Self-tolerance and non-judgmental appreciation of others while exhibiting neither.—Jerry Zeller.

What is your favorite quotation?

"Woe to philosophers who cannot laugh away their wrinkles. I look upon solemnity as a disease." (Voltaire)—Caroline Clotfelter.

"The unexamined life is not worth living." (Socrates)—Cam Coltharp.

"The unsearchable riches of Christ." (Ephesians 3:8)—Bill Geren.

"For those that care, no explanation is necessary. For those that don't, no explanation will do."—Jay Harriman.

"It depends."—Aprile Holland.

"Even if I knew certainly the world would end tomorrow, I would plant an apple tree today." (Martin Luther)—Jean Howell.

"Be not too hasty to trust or to admire the teachers of morality. They discourse as angels, but they live like men." (Samuel Johnson)—Deal Hudson.

"A child is God's opinion that life should go on."—Jean McGarrity.

"Beware of all enterprises that require new clothes." (Thoreau)—Matt Mancini.

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?" (Micah 6:8)—May Newby.

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."—Paula Satcher.

"You use a glass mirror to see your face; you use works of art to see your soul." (George Bernard Shaw)—Homer Savige.

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." (Emerson)—Marty Williams.

"To know what is right and not to do it is the worst cowardice." (Confucius)—Bill Woolf.

Who is the most influential person in your life?

My husband.—Caroline Clotfelter.

My mother, who shows me strength and steadfastness; my father, who taught me to build and who models for me the Christian faith; and my teachers, Glenn Hinson and Ralph Lynn, who encouraged me to become all that I am capable of becoming and who challenged me to look beyond myself to the needs of the world.—Duane Davis.

Dr. Monroe Swilley, a man who exemplifies the Golden Rule.—Hayward Fountain.

Without question, my sainted mother and father and their constant and continuing love, encouragement, example, wit, and wisdom.—Dick Gibson.

My parents, for the goals, tools, and blueprints; and several hundred others, who continue to help focus, sharpen, and refine.—Colin Harris.

Louie D. Newton.—Jean Howell.

Christopher Marlowe, Jean-Paul Sartre, and Albert Camus—in terms of influences through reading; Father Austin Ford of Emmaus House in Atlanta has been and continues to be the most influential person in my life in terms of actions and ethics.—Nancy Leslie.

Right now, my dean, Jean Hendricks.—Baird Lloyd.

My father.—Jean McGarrity.

Apart from Christ, my husband, Don.—May Newby.

Right now, my son Joel.—Elaine Orr.

My wife, Stephanie.—Sam Peppas.

My mother and father, and my identical twin sister.—Paula Satcher.

Jesus of Nazareth.—Jerry Zeller.

BABY FACE

1. She's a scientist; so was Freud. This one's name is Dr. _____.
  2. With people's problems she works hard. Isn't she cute? She's _____.
  3. "Upward Bound"—her favorite word. This must be Ms. _____.
  4. What comes to mind is "Wesley," for something to rhyme with _____.
  5. "If you want some, put your bibs on. I'm not messy; I'm _____."
  6. When angels sing they play the harp. This little devil is _____.
  7. Hotsy-chotsy, shooby-dooby: this sweet thing is Dr. _____.
  8. A builder of walls, old Nehemiah. A builder of bridges? Middle-aged _____.
  9. Holland is known for windmills and dykes. _____ is known for smiles and the likes.
  10. With birds and bugs he's wont to play. Who could it be but our own Dr. _____?
  11. He's a young athlete, head to his toe. Can anyone guess? It's Coach _____.
  12. Students, teachers, none can phase her. Giggle, gurgle, _____.
  13. "We try harder!" So cries Avis. Who's this crying? It's Dr. _____.

BURGER POLL

In the wake of the controversy over the better burger, the Phoenix staff conducted a poll in order to determine which burger Mercerians feel is truly superior. Of those who responded, 60% chose the Wendy's Single; 26% chose the Burger King Whopper; 10% chose the McDonald's Big Mac; and 4% chose the Mercer Burger. Clearly, instead of electing to have it their way, Mercerians tend to be "Wendy's kind of people." Simply put, it's all a matter of taste.

Braves fans of '82
Began the season with hope anew.
History dictated the team's defeat,
But they cheered the club with devotion complete.
The Braves, with Torre as their guide,
Took 13 straight on a merry ride.
The fans could hardly believe sight;
Their boys were winning every night.
Later on the tide did turn;
Nineteen straight losses caused the fans concern.
But they held firm 'til the season's close,
When the pennant over Atlanta rose.
Although they failed in post-season play,
The loyal fans had had their day.
The season had given them much to cheer,
And they looked forward to '83
As a World Series year!

The Student Government Association, responding to student concerns, works to bring the democratic process into the school through full student representation. The SGA strives to develop lines of communication between students, faculty, and school organizations in order to implement and maintain effective procedures for achieving goals of mutual interest and benefit to the whole Mercer community. Among the many activities sponsored by the SGA are open discussions, Fall Conference, the International Dinner, graduation rehearsal dinners, and Wednesday morning prayer meetings.

Entertainment Committee

The Entertainment Committee, a special standing committee of the SGA, sponsors, plans, and coordinates all the social activities on the Mercer campus. This year's activities included the Rib Roast, the Spring Dance, the Beach Party, the Halloween Party, and the Christmas Party.

The Interclub Council is made up of representatives from all the clubs and organizations on the Mercer/Atlanta campus. Representatives to the ICC report on activities and projects that each organization is planning. The Council also reviews club procedures and policies.

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union is open to all interested students. Its purpose is to encourage and provide for the spiritual development and welfare of Mercer students through Bible study, community service, worship, retreats, and seminars devoted to specific topics. Special emphasis is given each year to fundraising projects to send students as summer missionaries. "Impact" teams formed by students in the BSU participate in church retreats, youth-led revivals, and worship services in area churches. Members of the BSU executive and freshman councils are elected each year and are coordinated with the state and national BSU organizations.

International Student Association

Under the leadership of Dan Meadors, Assistant Dean of Students, the International Student Association strives to bring together all Mercer students for the appreciation of various cultures and the exchange of ideas. Each week, in an effort to promote world citizenship, the ISA holds a Fellowship Coffee, during which programs on different countries may be presented and political issues discussed. In the fall of 1982, the ISA sponsored an International Festival, at which students from fifteen countries shared their culture through native foods, costumes, dances, and artifacts.

The purpose of the Psychology Club is to provide extracurricular learning experiences in psychology for students interested in psychology or a related field as a profession. The club offers a variety of social activities. On occasion, speakers associated with special areas of psychology discuss with students current research and developments in the field.

The Adult Life Support Organization is an extracurricular program for Mercer students who are twenty-five years of age or older. The purpose of ALSO is to provide the non-traditional student (a student returning to college after an absence of five or more years) with advisement and information related to the specific needs of non-traditional students. ALSO offers monthly luncheon meetings and periodic family gatherings where students may associate with friends who have similar interests and concerns. ALSO membership is open to all interested non-traditional students.

Women in Communications, Inc. is a professional organization providing support and assistance to women entering the field of communications. WICI, the largest professional organization for women in the US, maintains 190 professional and student chapters in the state of Georgia alone. The Mercer chapter participates in the WICI "Day-On-the-Job" program, which provides students with the opportunity of observing women in positions of professional responsibility on a daily basis. The Mercer chapter also sponsors a film program each week. The films are concerned with women in their professional and everyday lives.

The Black Student Alliance serves the Black students of Mercer by promoting an awareness of Black culture and heritage and by providing forums for all Mercer students designed to acquaint the community with current trends and issues that affect the Black experience. The BSA is open to all interested students.

The Mercer University Atlanta Accounting Association, under the leadership of Paula Satcher and Chandler Russell, is one of the few campus organizations geared towards professional people. The purpose of this club is to expose its members to opportunities in the accounting field, in both public and private practice. In April of each year, the Association holds its annual Accounting Association Banquet.

Beta Omicron, Mercer's chapter of Kappa Delta Epsilon, is a society for Education majors. Under the direction of faculty advisor Virginia Nelms, Beta Omicron strives to develop among its members teaching skills and ideals and actively encourages constructive participation in solving the various problems related to education. Members are also urged to join in professional community and campus service.

The Pre-Med/Pre-Dental Club of MUA is sponsored by Dr. Michael Finnerty. Club activities afford members the opportunity to hear speakers and participate in activities related to their chosen professions. Some of the professional institutions represented by speakers during the year were Morehouse Medical School, the Center for Disease Control, Medical College of Georgia, Mercer School of Pharmacy, Mercer Medical School, and Emory Medical School.

Community Singers

The Community Singers is a group of students, faculty, staff, and community members who join together to perform selected choral masterpieces. This group provides members of the non-Mercer community the opportunity to participate in the choral activities of the College. The Singers performed three major concerts in 1982-83. In November, they presented a program for the Southern Baptist Regional Instrumental Workshop. In December, they performed Bach's "Magnificat." They also participated in the singalong "Messiah." In May, the Singers joined the Concert Choir in a performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

Mercer/Atlanta's soccer team finished the 1982 season with a record of nine wins, ten losses, and three ties. The team faced some serious setbacks in the first half of its schedule. Juan Pelez, senior midfielder, was lost for most of the games with a knee injury. Freshman fullback Eddie Mills suffered a similar injury and was unable to play for the last half of the season. The Hawks' star goalie Skip Zitzielsberger also suffered a serious injury. He, too, was sidelined for the last half of the season. Ron Jones and freshman Neill Renwick kept goal for the remainder of the schedule. In spite of these injuries, the Hawks had their second best season ever in intercollegiate play. They finished second in the 1st Annual Mercer University Invitational Tournament, and two of their players, Raymond and Gary Bardoul, were named to the All-District Soccer Team. The Hawks are looking forward to another good season in 1983.

Maria Smith, Cheryl Drust

The 1982 volleyball team faced many challenges throughout the season; however, teamwork, skill, and competitive spirit gave the Hawks the edge they needed to defeat such teams as Georgia Tech, Augusta College, and other formidable opponents.

The key to Mercer's success was strong serving with five players having a 90% or better average. Based on their season performance, Team Captain Cheryl Drust and junior Maria Smith were chosen by several coaches in the NAIA Division 25 as members on the six-player All-District Team.

Concluding the season with a second-place finish in the District 25 Championship, the Hawks look forward to another outstanding season in 1983. It is hoped that with the aid of scholarship money now available, the team will be better able to continue its drive toward a national championship.

Van Samples

Due largely to inexperience, the 1982 Varsity Baseball Team struggled through a season of highs and lows. The starting team was composed of five freshmen, one sophomore, one junior, and two seniors. The pitching staff were freshmen, with the exception of one senior. Despite the disappointments of losing, the team improved dramatically. As the season came to a close, the Hawks won six of their last nine games.

The highlight of the year was the performance of Van Samples, sophomore centerfielder, who led the nation with fifty stolen bases out of fifty-two attempts. The previous Mercer record was forty stolen bases held by Buzzy Mayo.

Nineteen eighty-two was Coach Fountain's last year of coaching varsity baseball. The 1983 team will be coached by Charlie Romano. The Hawks are expected to do extremely well with many returning players.

Tennis

The 1982-83 school year began with the new Atlanta Lawn and Tennis Association A.L.T.A. tennis teams, with students, faculty, and players not associated with Mercer competing at different skill levels. The teams played on weekends until November, when playoffs were held. Several tennis buffs noted that it was a good way to improve each person's individual skill without the pressure of tournament play. Faculty and students alike look forward to next year's season when A.L.T.A. tennis returns and the cry of "Tennis, anyone?" fills the air.

Indoor Soccer

On January 28th, the Mercer/Atlanta Indoor Soccer Team with coach Charlie Romano traveled to Asheville, North Carolina in hopes of winning the North Carolina Indoor Soccer Tournament. The Hawks showed promise in playing ability and skill, but due to the rough nature of indoor soccer, a few team members sustained injuries. This, along with illness, hampered the team's offensive power and caused the team to have three consecutive losses. By the time the team returned to the hotel, they were exhausted, bruised, and ready to go home.

Football

While the Atlanta Falcons and the rest of the NFL were temporarily shut down due to the players' strike, Mercer/Atlanta students and faculty occupied their free time with some football of their own. Flag football is part of the Intramural Sports Program which satisfies the students' need for entertainment as well as competition. Each person participating in the program decided which team he or she wanted to be a member of. The teams, including the Sasquatches, the Ronsaurus, the Studasaurus, the Tera-dactyls, the Sleestacks, and the Faculty team, competed after classes and on weekends with little interference with their studies. Faculty and student team members alike had a good time with as many laughs as bruises and sore muscles. In the end, the Faculty team emerged victorious and claimed the championship.

Basketball

Intramural Basketball competition began January 25 with eight teams. The teams, including the Sugar Hill Gang, the Dawgs, the Mercer Stars, the Lakers, the Faculty team, the Pharmacy teams 1 & 2, and the Free Agents, battled fiercely throughout the competition. After all games were played, the Sugar Hill Gang and the Dawgs were tied for first with five wins and no losses. The Mercer Stars and the Lakers were tied for second with four wins and one loss. The Faculty team, showing some promise in their playing ability, finished the season in last place.

The finals were held on February 17 and 24, resulting in a championship game between the Sugar Hill Gang and the Mercer Stars. Both teams played well, but the Sugar Hill Gang came out on top, beating the Mercer Stars by fifteen points.
